

The American Board of Pathology

April 12, 2018

ABMS Statement - Setting the Record Straight: MOC Improves Care, Lowers Cost

Continuing Certification (formerly MOC) is important for physicians. It is an external, objective indication to patients, their families, hospitals, health systems, insurers, and other physicians that Board Certified physicians are up to date in their area of specialty medicine. With the explosion of medical knowledge and an estimated 10,000 new studies published each month, keeping current in specialty medicine is required.

For the full ABMS statement please click here.